

I believe the State of Wisconsin no call list is very beneficial. It allows consumers protection from unwanted solicitation. I believe it should be strengthened with higher penalties. Not weakened, as some special interests would like to see. Any entity has the right to advertise, on a multitude of venues.